

Erin T. McKeighan

Erin McKeighan is a Managing Director with Alvarez & Marsal's Case Management Services in Chicago. She specializes in information management and bankruptcy case administration. Ms. McKeighan has more than 13 years of restructuring experience advising private and public companies. She has worked with clients across a range of industries, including media, wholesale and retail, coal, oil and gas, telecommunications and manufacturing.

Ms. McKeighan has extensive expertise in end-to-end bankruptcy administration, from strategic bankruptcy preparation to the implementation of reorganization plans. This includes the planning of first-day pleadings, negotiation of asset purchase agreements, creation of financial reports, development of the schedules and statements of financial affairs, analysis of executory contracts, performance of preference analyses and claims reconciliation, and completion of reorganization plans. She also advises on creditor issues and all facets of post-confirmation activities.

Ms. McKeighan earned a bachelor's degree in business, with a concentration in accounting and computer information systems, from The Kelley School of Business at Indiana University.

