

About Stacey Bolton

Stacey Bolton is a Compliance and Ethics Professional with over 25 years of experience in the financial services industry managing compliance, conduct and reputation risk. Currently, Stacey is a Senior Vice President and Corporate Compliance Officer at The Northern Trust Company, in Chicago, IL. He is responsible for managing global compliance programs including, Data Privacy, Corporate Ethics, Fraud Prevention, Market Surveillance, Policy Governance and Compliance Training.

Stacey received a Bachelor of Science from Northern Illinois University, a Master of Arts in Theology from Moody Theological Seminary and Graduate School, and a Master of Business Administration from Purdue University.