Golden Apple takes part in Chicago's College Awareness Day
With 3rd Annual I Know I Can Event
Staff helps kids see college in future

To mark College Awareness Day in Chicago on February 27, 12 Golden Apple staff volunteers will visit third-graders in five Chicago Public Schools and read I Know I Can, a book that encourages students to attend college.

The volunteers will discuss the benefits of attending college and provide each student with a copy of I Know I Can to take home with them to continue the college discussion with their families.

Golden Apple staff is among 125 volunteers who will visit 40 Chicago Public School on College Awareness Day, which is being celebrated by Golden Apple in partnership with the Chicago Public Schools, George M. Pullman Foundation, Associated Colleges of Illinois, Harris School of Public Policy Studies, and Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce.

The Golden Apple volunteers are Gabriela Aguirre, Dominic Belmonte, Greg Borkowski, Janet Carpenter, Carolyn Cyriaque, Gloria Harper, Eric Johnson, Pat Kilduff, Jonathan Markanday, Marshall Rosenthal, Jozel Shwatal, and Sarah Weisz.
