

About Robert Newman

Bob Newman (CFA) joined Promus as a partner in 2015. He leads our family office and serves as an investment advisor. Before Promus Bob worked at William Blair & Co. for 23 years, setting records during his 11 years as head of research and member of the executive committee. He holds an M.B.A. from the Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University and serves as board chair for the Golden Apple Foundation. Bob lives in Hinsdale, Illinois with his wife Debbie. They have three grown children.